

Announcing the NMConnect mobile app!

The New Mexico Crisis and Access Line (NMCAL) is excited to announce the NMConnect smartphone app for all New Mexicans. NMConnect is here to close the gap by engaging people with immediate access to mental health professionals and resources.

Key features:

1. Directly connect to a counselor or peer support worker;
2. Directly text a peer support worker;
3. Access up to date resources for substance use, mental health services, and other community resources
4. Updated information on the state response to COVID-19

About the New Mexico Crisis and Access Line (NMCAL)

The New Mexico Crisis and Access Line is funded by the State of New Mexico and answered everyday of the year by ProtoCall Services, Inc., the nation's leading provider for specialty telephonic behavioral health services providing seamless access to crisis assessment, intervention, stabilization, and referrals. Our staff of mental health professionals support callers on our Crisis Line 24 hours a day, while our Certified Peer Support Specialists answer calls on the Warmline from 3:30pm – 11:30pm MT and texts from 6pm – 10p MT.
